The News To-Night.

The Democratic Executive Committee, and the NEWS and the Sentinel, will receive their dispatches tonight at the room of Gen. W. R. Cox, in the Law Building, the old Cape Fear Bank. As the room is small, and it would be impossible to receive and arrange for the publication and transmission of dispatches in the confusion of a crowded r. om, none but the committee and reporters can be admitted on the inside, but the news as fast as received will be read out from the steps of the building.

This is done from no sense of exclusion, on the contrary the convenience of the public has been consulted and every arrangement made for obtaining the quickest news from all parts of the State and the Union. It is hoped that all will appreciate the action of the committee and the press, in arranging for them to have the latest news. The necessity for quiet privacy on the part of the committee and press, cannot fail to be appreciated by all when it is known that several hundred dispatches are already called for from the Democratic headquarters and the press, all of which must be accurate, and to insure which the greatest caution, care and quiet will be necessary.

DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION.

Tilden and Vance Torchlight Procession.

UNPROVOKED NEGRO ATTACK.

POLICEMEN INJURED IN AT-TEMPTING TO QUELL THE DIFFICULTY.

Supervisor Shaffer's Servant Fires the First Shot.

Yesterday an impromptu torchlight procession was arranged for last night, and about 7 o'clock a large crowd assembled in Fayetteville street. Rosin was burning at different points up and down this street and on many other streets, and torches to a large number were prepared and placed in the hands of the crowd, which moved about 8 o'clock, under command of Chief Marshal John D. Thompson, down Fayetteville iuto Davie, through Davie to Dawson, down Dawson to Martin, and up Martin to Fayetteville again. Passing in front of the Yarborough House and the Court House, the procession stopped at the residence of HON. D. G. FOWLE and called for this gentleman. He appeared on the verandah and in a brief speech told the crowd good news from the points where he had lately spoken. He spoke but a short time, after which the procession again moved down Davie street to Dawson, on the corner of which it stopped, in front of the Cottage Hotel. It was here addressed by Messrs. B. Y. Rogers and W. H. Bledsoe, after which it passed over into the fifth ward, to Moore's store, corner of Dawson and Jones streets, where it was addressed briefly by R. H. Jones, Esq.

Thence the procession moved through Jones street to Blount, at the corner of which it was addressed for about 5 minutes by N. B. Broughton,

From this point it moved on Swain street, through which it passed until reaching Davie. Here it stopped in front of the residence of

B. Y. ROGERS, Where it was addressed by Joseph B. Bathelor, Maj. P. H. Russ, C. M. Busbee and R. H. Battle, Jr.

After these speeches the line marched to Metropolitan Hall where a considerable audieuce was addressed by Gen. W. R. Cox and next by W. H. Pace. The former urged quiet and forbearance to-day and told the audience that the difficulty of the early evening (which is hereafter referred to) was the foul

After the speaking, Mr. Graham Haywood introduced a preamble and resolutions, urging the merchants to close their stores to-day. The resolutions w re by authority of the two clubs unanimously adopted.

We are necessarily brief in our description of the Democratic demoustration. Great enthusiasm was manifested and the cheers might have been heard for a long distance. Several transparencies, bearing appropr. ate and striking mottoes, were in line. The procession was head d by Stanley's band and followed by a cannon, which was fired at different points along the route.

We come now to speak of A VILLAINOUS AND UNPROVOKED ATTACK which was made upon the pro by a mob of negroes, as it passed the Court House the second time, just before stopping at Judge Fowle's. The negroes were congregated in large numbers in front of the Court House, where Dick Badger was speaking. As the end of the procession passed some of the negroes threw small stones at some of the torches, and being remonstrated with, cursed those who carried them. Ass's ant Chief of Police, Jor. A. Harris, went into the crowd to quell the disturbance, when he was set upon by the negroes and driven with sticks and rocks to the Yarborough House. About this time Mr. John Cayton was assaulted by a negro. Policeman Samuel Betts ran in to separate them, and was taking Mr. Cayton out of the crowd when he was set upon by a number of negroes.

ARMED WITH STICKS AND BOCKS. and was struck several times. His upper lip was cut and he was struck on the head with a stick. He was so beet that after using his billy until it was broken and useless, he had to flee for his life. At this juncture officers Dick Finel and Jack Bearley went into the crowd, where they were set upon in gash out in his head, from which th blood flowed profusely, covering his shirt bosom. Dock Sorrell, the Sec-retary of the Republican State Executive Committee, struck Be across the head with a bottle, gashing him badly and drawing a great deal of blood. He received also a pair ,nl wound on the arm. Several whites rushed in, and in the meles Mr. Gay KNOCKED DOWN AND BADLY BURT, and Mr. Wm. Separk received considerable injury.

The first pistol shot was fired by negro named John Lee, who is in the employ of A. W. Shaffer, Chief Supervisor of Registration for the Eastern District of the State. Four or five shots were subsequently fired by the negroes, but none took effect. During this time Judge Fowle was addressing the head of the procession from his residence. A shot was fired it is believed at him, which passes over the heads of the crowd and struck the house. During the rio the windows were broken out of Dr.

private parlor. Mayor Manly appeared in the midst of the rioters simultaneously with the cannon which was accompanying the procession, and the fear inspired in the negroes by this, added to the Mayor's commands that the peace be restored, finally quelled the riot.

AFFAIR. and it is confidently be'i ved that it was purposely brought about by the white Radical leaders. The Democrats were doing nothing whatever to warrant the attack. Those who made it had no shadow of an excu-e for so doing. The forbearance of the whites under the circumstances was remarkable, but we warn the negroes against a recurrence of such an assault. We warr too, and most particularly, the white-skinned and white-livered leaders. Forbearance sometimes ceases to be a virtue, and it will be an evil day for the negroes and thei less decent white allies, when they lay on the final straw that will break the camel's back.

THE COUNTY CANDIDATES.

The county canvass closed yester lay in this city, the candidates having made a thorough tour of the county and spoken in every township. A large crowd was present, Metropolican Hall being well filled, the majority of the audience being col-

The first speaker was John Eaton Bl.d-os. His speech was after his usual style. There was a great deal of ranting and very little of argument. The subject matter of the sp ech was the gerrymandering of Wilmington, Newbern and Raieigh by the Democratic Legislature, the calling of the late constitutional con vention, the seating of the Demo cratic delegates from Robeson, and the amendments. This was all there was of the speech, but the darkles yelled because he talked loud, and Bledsoe was happy.

Mr. Page was the next speaker. He defended his record in the Legislature of 1874-'75, which had been attacked by Bledsoe. He said he was proud of every vote which he cast in that baly, and proceeded to show how it had saved to the State the Western N. C. Railroad, and that it had reduced taxation 38 cents on the $100. He showed that the landlord and tenant act, which had been at acked as a Democratic measure, was really created by the Republican Legislature of 1868-'99, and had only been amended by the last Legislature. He went on to show that Bled soe was a man who had never paid his poll tax, and Purnell was one who had said that he didn't care a d-n for the Republican party, but was for Purnell, reading a certificate to establish this.

Mr. Purnell came next. His speech in the main was decent, as to its language, but it abounded in misr presentation. He endeavored to create false impressions as to the landlord and tenant act, the usury law, and as to the course of Mesers. Page and Whitey in the effort which was made in the last Legislature to relieve the sureties of Tim Lee. The statement of Mr. Page that Tommy was a boti-tailed lawyer and a carpet-bagger from Forsythe," stuck in his craw and he grew augry and eloquent. His reference to the character of oid Mrs. Nancy King, of Jones, was shameful, shameful, and not to have been expected from a man of Purnell's raising. Mr. Whitley was the next speaker. He made the fur fly from Bledsoe and Purnell. He tore the sophistry from them, and held them up to the ridicule of the audience. He sequitted himself fully of the charge that he had betrayed his people while in the Legislature, and showed his rec ord to be all that it should have been. He took up each point that his opponents had made, and exploded every one of them. No fair-minded man present could but acknowledge that Whitley's victory over both of them was complete. Mr. Todd, another of the Republican nominees, spoke next. His remarks were destitute of special feature". He reiterated about what the previous speakers on his side had said, the only difference being that he said it worse. Mr. Olive followed. He spoke forcibly, truthfully and convincingly, taking rather a wider range, and dwelling with good effect upon the corruption and mismanagement of the party in power. He spoke well and kept the attention of the crowd. Mr. Ennise was next called. He was not present. Mr. J. W. Jones appeared, but his opponent not being present, he did not make a speech. He merely an-nounced himself and said that he brought glorious news. All the indications point to a great victory in

"Honest Bob" Wynne was the next speaker. After a little preliminary gab about how he was going to sweep up George Snow before he quit, he started in on the Legislature, accusing it of a purpose to commit fraud when it changed the election from August to October, and wealed lufluence so that negroes should lose their votes in the mulmultiplicity of boxes. Then he went to the usury law and the constituional amendments. His remarks on these points are unworthy further notice, except that he told the negroes that these amendments pro-posed to make an entering wedge to deprive them of the right to vote. He passed from these to the Demo era's squandering the State school fund and the stealing of the Peabods fund by Stephen D. Pool. He then bused Vance awhile on his war reord. His next point was upor

on, many of the ne

born and raised here, and the easy feeling he had toward his people of all colors was that of kind desired to see the country prosper once more, and in order to do this, be desired to see this Republican poverthrown. He recounted the latery of the Credit Mobilier, the wi key frauds, the selling of post-tre ships, and many other of the most glaring misdeeds of the party. After referring also to military courpation in the South, and to the opp of our people, Mr Snow persod to opponent. He told of Wynnestee negroes with dogs, of his a a watch from Tim Lee for ser rendered, of his buying mead for the county at 11 and selling it to the county at 16 cents, and of many other of his official misdeeds and shortcomings. He disproved to the satisfaction of every one the charges that Wynne had made of official mie management on the part of the De cratic Board of County Comm ers, and proved with equal satisfi tion that taxes are lower and the county finances healthler than they

Cap'. W. W. White spoke next. He snelled Mr. Rogers and defended himself from all the charges preferred against him by his opponent. It was in ingenius and humorous speech.

Mr. Rogers was next. He cleared up very conclusively all the charges made against him, taking them up seriatim. He then entered spon a number of charges against Capt. White, confining himself, as his opponent did, to personal explanations and charges. Sheriff Dunn then announced him

WAKE COUNTY.

In 1874 the total average vote in Wake county for the legislative ticket was 7,408. Outsid of Raleigh township an average vote of 2.846 was east for the Democratic candidates to 2,334 for the Republican candidates. In this township the average vote was 923 Democratic and 1,- 309 Republican. The average Dem craffe majority outside of Raleigh township was 500. The average Republican majurity in this township was 386,-This left an average major ty for our ticket of 120 in the entire county,

There is no reason why we should not do better this year. The county has been thoroughly and effectively canvassed by our nominess, and there has never been before such enthuslaum and unanimity among the white people of the county. Much will of course depend upon the vote of this city. We are assured that our ticket will come to R deigh from the country townships w th certainly as large and probably, a larger majority than in 1874.

Can the Republicans of this township overcome a country majority for the Democrats of 500? We be lieve not. The responsibility rests upon the Democrats of this city. We urge them to do their full duty.-With full registration of our strength and a full vote to-day we fear not he result.

NECRO LAWIESSNESS. The riot in this city last night was an outrageous affair. A full account of it appears in our local columns. The negroes were entirely at fault. They were the assailants, and there was no provocation. When the police interfered to restore order they were violently as aulted by the pegroes with pistols and clubs. What was this but deliberate resistance to the lawful authority?

The forbearance of the whites who were present was remarkable and most commendable; but, when the sun sets to-day, the time will baye passed for white men and Democrats to submit to such barbarous as-aults as that of last night. We warn the negroes against are petition of this conduct. And to-day, especially, let them act as peaceful, lawabiding citizens, and not as the lawless ruffians their white leaders would have them be. We direct attention to Mayor Manly's well-timed proclamation in to-day's paper. Let us have perce.

OUR dispatches to-day contain the secount of a serious riot in Cincinnati, brought on by a negro shooting a white man. In the light of this disturbance we get clearer ideas than ever of the wonderful forbearance of the white people of South Carolina Hoy massacre, the Edgefield assarsi nation and the Charleston rlot.

THE canvass of Wake county closed yesterdsy, at Metropolitan Hall. A full report of proceedings appears in our local columns. The speech of Mr. Snow was especially admirable.

MANY false reports about re-actions a favor of the Republicans will be disseminated in this State. Pay no attention to them, except to nail them as campaign lies.

READ the ringing address of the Democratic National Executive Committee, to the people of the United States. The Committee are confident of victory.

EVERY citizen should resolve to keep the prace to day. And every ficer-State and National-should determine that the peace shall be kept.

POLITICAL NOTES.

VICTORY STRAIGHT AHEAD.

A RINGING ADDRESS FROM THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE HEADQUARTERS.

The Result no Longer Doubtful-Two Hundred Electoral Votes Certain for Tilden.

Rooms of NATIONAL DEM CRATIC COMMITTEE, EVERETT HOUSE, NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1876. To the People of the United States:

The great contention between the Republican office-holders and the people is now drawing to a close. The evidence is all in, and the country is to pass upon the issue—which is, whether, by a change of men and measures there shall, at least, be opportunity given for a change from the "bad times" brought on by mismanagement and maladministration of the public interests by the party in the public interests by the party in power. The great majority of the cople desire only an opportunity to earn an honest liveliho d, and their main concern is not in the success of main concern is not in the success of any party, but in the maintenance of a government which protects life, liberty and properly at the lowest cost, and does not tend, by its policy and measures, to make the rich richer and the poor poorer.

The Republican managers have ig-nomiatously failed in their efforts to obscure and pervert the real and only obscure and pervert the real and only issue involved in this struggle for hones' government by the substitution of faise party cries and calumnies, addressed to the passions and prejudices, rather than to the reason of mer.

The result is no longer doubtful.
The bad men who have so long abused the trusts confided to them by a patient people will be driven from power by the popular voice on Tuesday next.

From the information in the possession of this committee, based upon careful estimates received from the various States, we are justified in claiming as sure for the cause of reform, embodied in the National Democratic ticket, 200 electoral votes -a clear majority of the who e num-ber. In this estimate we do not include the electoral vote of South Carolina or Louisiana, which, if ac-corded an election free from military interference, will undoubtedly cast fifteen additional votes for the cause of good government. Besides these votes we have every reason to expect seventy-one votes from States regard-ed as doubtful, which, if cast for Tilden and Headricks, will give them over two-thirds of the E ectoral College. In this estimate we do not include the State of Ohio, from which, however, we have assurances of vic-

On the other hand, our estimate concedes to the Republican officeholders every State in which by their power of patronage and their reckless use of illegal expedien a they have any reasonable ground for claiming

The committee feel that the day of redemption diaws nigh, when our be-loved country will be freed from the embraces of corruption; when equal rights will be restored to all classes of citizens; when the Government will be honestly and economically administered; when the burden of taxation will be lightened so as to be tolerable; when the national credit will be upheld and strengthened; when the shackles of commerce will be stricken off; and prosperity, so long s stranger within our gates, will once more take up its abode in the homes of American frames.

The People's Common Seuse Medicals and the whites, Democrats and kepublicans, with a few exception soully, are upheld and strengthened; when the shackles of commerce will be stricken off; and prosperity, so long s stranger within our gates, will once more take up its abode in the homes of American frames.

can freemen. It only remains, therefore, for the to only remains, therefore, for the committee to make this final appeal to their follows to use all possible precautions to prevent frauds in the election, by which the will of the people may be defeated, and to exercise the great privilege and the supreme duty of frameworks. of freemen by casting their votes for the rause of reform in such over-whelming numbers as will fir the coming contury render impossible the resurrection of the corruption and im-providence which have dishonored and impoversished the country during

The victory thus achieved will be the triumph, not of any narty or section, but of the whole people, vindically their own honor and assuring their own weifare. order of the National Democratic Committee.

ABRAM S. HEWITT, Fr d rick O. Prince, Secretary.

THE DYING PAPAL PREMIER.

An Ecclesiastical Dignitary of Enormous Influence. Compared with other leading Eu-

Compared with other leading Eurorean statesmen of the day, Cardinal Antonelli can hardly be considered an aged man. A Roman from his youth upward, though born at Somino in April 1806, he was brought up at Rome for the Church; and soon after taking orders he held various posts under Pope Gregory XVI. On June 11, 1847, he was raised to the dirniy of Cardinal-Dacon by Pius IX. His business for many years hos been to transact all the temporal flairs of the Papacy as Secretary of Sare to the Pope, President of the Council of Minis ers, Prefect of the Sare dapostolic Palac a of the Sace ed Cugiegation of Loretto and of the Consulta. His work was quite das much that of a banker as of a diplomatist. He seldom cared to converse about the actual situation of diplomatist. He soldom cared to converse about the actual situation of the Courch and of Europe, preferring francial themes and selecting for such councils those representatives of foreign affairs who were best in formed upon money matters, and who could give that the most useful information. He inhabits a noble palace on the summit of Quirinal Hill. Alstough receiving with other Cardinas, a salary of $4,000 per annum, no is provided with so many wealthy but fices that he has accumulated an immense fortune. He has a chaplain and confessor, a little court of his own, and a scarlet-trimmed coach embla z ned with ecclesiastical heraidry.

York to-day for Tilden and Vance, and move the country from the sule realize the critical situation of their party, and are correspondingly desperate. At the close of the campaign they find themselves in a worse condition than at the beginning, and for evident reasons. Here is a party which has held continuous possession of power for more than fifteen years in every department of the Government. When asked for an account of its stewardship, what is the answer?

Falsehood, calumny, deception, defamation, and malice have been the only wespons with which the Republicans have fought this campaign, from the beginning to the end. Their whole aim has been to divert attention from the misdeeds, corruptions, stealings, frauds, and end. Their whole sim has been to divert attention from the misdeeds, corruptions, stealings, frauds, and rascalities of fifteen years of despotic and infamous rule. They did not dars to confront the record of what has been disclosed and hoped, by frantic abuse of their opponents and barefaced lies about Mr. Tilden, to escape the judgment which now hangs suspended over their heads, like the avenging sword of justice, held by a hair.

The distress of the people caused by political extravagance and profligacy, and the remedies to bring back long delayed pro-perity, have had no hearing from these heartless demisgogues. They care nothing for the million of unemployed laborers; for the decline in all forms of property; for the paralysis of enterprise; lor loss of trace, or for the wide spread ruin, which have resulted from their mal-admin stration.

After are exciting canvass of three months, in which these elements were unscrupulously employed, aided by all the power of the Administration, and by enormous sums of money extirted from the office-holders the managers are free to admit that they see defeat staring them in the face. They give up New York, that they see cefeat staring them in the face. They give up New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, which means they have no hope of carry-ing the election by fair means.

ing the election by fair means.

In this d-plorable plight, the question may be asked, what will they do? The best answer is furnished by the secret conference here in the last few days between Grant, Sherman, and She idan, the last of whom came all the way from his headquarters to have a personal meeting. The only remaining expedient for the administration is to try and break the Southtration is to try and break the Southern Democratic column by the use of the troops in Loui-iana, and perhaps elsewhere, after the South Carolina

There is a deliberate conspiracy on f.o., if it be at all practicable, to carry Louisiana at all bazards. The State government being in the hands of Kellogg and his crew, nothing will be left undone that villainy can de-vise to defeat the Democracy. They know that if the whites and blacks can vote unmolested, every vestige of can vote unmolest-d, every vestige of carpet-hag rule will be swept away by many thousans of majority, even with the Returning Board in the hands of scoundrels holding offile, and who once before defrauded the people of their rights.

Hence arbitrary arrests are made in New Orleans, as they are in South Carolina, with the prospect of collisions to justify Sher dan's presence and interference. This is the last card, but it will fail, for Tilden's majority will sweep away all the delusions upon which this conspiracy has been built up.

It is now apparent to the whole

It is now apparent to the whole country that the military demonstration on South Carolina was gotten up to hold the State for the thieves who have so long rule it. The better

Besides the desire of Grant to cover up the iniquities of his Administration, and to revenge himself on the House of Representatives for the exposures of the last session, he is animated by the selfish desire to protect his friends and family connections in office, as well as by the hope of a restoration to the army through an act of Congress in case the Republicans should win. The great Rings and their ramifying influences that have so long sucked the Treasury teat the jobbers, contractors, office-holders, and all their associates, are now combined in a supreme effort to keep possession of what they have got, and to prevent a change of Administration.

This is a mighty combination, even without considering the unscrupulous elements of which it is composed. Add to it the desperation resulting from the fear of defeat and the loss of power, and it is easy to under-stand that nothing will be left un-done which gives the least promise of a possibility of success.

Yet, only a few weeks ago, the same combination, when fresh in the field, not exhausted by physical and mentals rain, with a minion of dollars to exp nd, and with confidence in their atility to succeed, was beaten on its own chosen field, when out three States were to be contested, and two only were in fact seriously disputed. The result which secured Indiana so decidedly, and with a little help would also have carried Hayes's own State, will be repea ed next week on a grander scale over the whole

The Military Strategy.

[Richmond Dispatch.] The Radical party are evidently relying upon the introduction of the military force into the Southern States as the only and the sure means to elect Hayes. The idea is that the presence of soldiers will enthuse the n gro voters who would vote for Hayes—r he destructive ticket—in any case, and will so intimidate those any case, and will so intimidate those n groes who meant to vote the Democratic ticket that they will all vite with the Radicals. This is all they hope to do—i. c. to make "solid" that negro vote and thus more completely to establish that color line which Radicalism and fausticism are ever deploring in their hypocritical rant. The while vote they cannot disture. Folders are friends of the white people, and display no unkindness towards them. The presence of of these soldiers is what is counted upon to work upon the negro. of these soldiers is what is counted upon to work upon the negro.

But the military argument at the polls—so hostile to every principle of liberty and to the spirit and letter of the Constitution—has not been employed without hesitation and douts. Even in the case of South Carolina Grant was not so sure but that he re-

The election will show what effect Grant's attempt to carry elections by military force will have in South Carolina. We are not sure that even in that State the results hoped for by the Prisident will be accomplished. The canvass had been progressing for a long time, and the colored people had been arrayed with great spirit and devotion with the parties they meant to vote with. Whether the strategy of the Radicals could compel them, like sheep, to run into the Radical fold, remains to be seen. We are certain of one thing, that the appeal to arms to decide the question of the Presidency must operate most unfavorably to the Radicals, if, indeed, there be enough of virtue and intelligence amongst the people The election will show what ef and intelligence amongst the people of the North to arouse a just indiguaof the North to arouse a just indigua-tion at the tyranny in the South that may at any time be visited upon the North A President put in office by the sword, and the Republic is gone. Commercial: THE GREAT DEMOCRATIC BLUNDER. As it now turns out the adoption of the straitghout policy of the D-mo-crats was a great blunder. They will lose the State, and the chances are that a most wretched and cor-rupt Legislature will be chosen—a Legislature heated, ignorant, preju-diced, and corrupt; which even the firm purpose and steady nerve of Chamteriain may be unable to con-

That the Republicans will triumph here now seems to me quite evident. The troops will do the business. The negroes feel encouraged to go ahead and vote the straight ticket, and they will do it. Half of those who belong to Democratic clubs will go back on their promises at the last day. With troops everywhere, rifle clubs disbanded, and all restraint re-moved, the negroes will almost unanmoved, the negroes will almost unanimously vote the Republican ticket. That settles it.

When I was here last month, pre-vious to Government interference, the indications were strongly the other way. The Mississippi plan promised to operate successfully and the Democrats would have had a large majority. But the scene changes; blue coats are on the ground, the process are one can plantly see by negroes, as one can plainly see by their actions, feer emboldened, and neither fear nor love will move them from their Republican a legiance.

The result promises to be bad f r the State all around. The business men at Charleston and Columbia, men at Charleston and Columbia, and the large centres feel blue and discouraged. The straight-out movement will be a failure, and the Legis lature promises to be the worst one ever convened in South Carolina, which is saying a rood deal.

What do the Northern people think of the serious facts that, if carried for him at all the troops will carry South him at all, the troops will carry South Caroina for Hayes, and that the State would certainly have voted for Tilden if the soldiers had not been sent thither? Is that free government?

Republicans Stone the Procession— Retaliation—A Negro Shoots a White Man and Narrowly Escapes Lynch—

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 5.—The Democrats had a final demonstration last night. There was a great deal of bad feeling displayed by crowds on the sidewalk, and it is stated that several boulders were thrown into the ranks, injuring some men in the procession. An attack was made on the Republican headquarters in the 18th ward, and the building gutted. One man was shot by a negro, who was promptly arrested by the police and hurried to the station house, followed by a large crowd with threats of lynching him. The riot alarm was given and a crowd of several thous house. Mayor Johnson addressed the crowd, advising them to leave the prisoner in the hands of the officers. which had a quieting effect. At a late hour the crowd dispersed.

placidity of dem-anor and thinks there is no doubt of the election of Hayes and Wheeler.

The departments are almost entirely described, most of the clerks having gone home to vote. Among those remaining there is the greatest have the latest news in anxiety to hear the latest news in reference to the r suit to-morrow. The feeling is one of suspence, the impression being that the election will be very close.

Mr. Farvey, Secre'ary of the Democratte Congressional Committee, has no doubt of a fav. rable issue. Another extract from the Star says that at the he dquarters of the Demo-cratic Congression of Committee there is a red white heat of enthusiasm in-spired by the reports received from various sections of the country. Mr. Harvey, in charge of the Committee, said to-day to the representative of the Star: "Tilden will be elected as said to-day to the representative of the Star: "Tilden will be elected as surely as you are standing in this room." In this opinion he is end read solidly by his colleagues of the Committee. There is a good deal of a de betting outside of the professional gamoling circles. In the majority of instances, the odds are given to Tilden in the proportion of ten to nine on the general result. Smaller bets, and a good many of them, covering silk hats, overcosts, suits of clothes &c. are also made. The Democrata bet with a good deal of confidence, but as a Republican said to day, "a bobtail flush isn't worth anything when you have to show your hand." The excitement in the Departments has suitsided, because all the voting material is away. There is hardly more than one clork per room left in any of the rooms of the Treasury, and until the election is over, Uncle Sam will tax the energies of the women employees to keep the machinery employees to keep the machinery running while the more fortunate masculines, in voting rights at least, are away to the front.

At the hotels and sample rooms the impending conflict is the only topic of interest. Opinious are, of course, divided, and some sharp conversational episodes are the result. The Democrats, judging from their exultation, take the ground that Tilden will be elected, not because they have any politive ground upon which to base their claim, but rather because all of their party hope so and display a nerve not made manifest in sixteeu years. Per contra, the Republicans are loth to believe that a majority of the forty millions of people of the country are ready for the sweeping change in the national and financial policy which a Democratic success policy which a Democratic success would bring about. In an undemonstrative way they express a good deal of faith that all is well.

Negro Fiends in Louisiana—A Sher-iff's Posse Fired Upon—A Demo-cratic Candidate Killed—A City In-vaded by an Armed Band of Negroes.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6.—A special to the Republican from Monroe, La., says that the colored people coming here to vote are s'opped by armed men, and their registration papers taken from them. The State Supervisor of Registration has been instructed to issue duplicates. J. Edwards Leonard, a Republican candidate for Congress in the Fifth Di-trict, has been appointed by Gov. Kellogg Associate Justice of the Su-preme Court of the State, vice Talif-

A special to the Picaguns from Vicksburg says that a sheriff's possesent from Fayette yesterday to arrest a negro for shooting another, were fir d into by negroes from ambush, and two of the posse mortally wound-ed. The sheriff's posse were reinforced by a detachment of troops sent from this city to Delta, La.

A special to the Democrat from Ba-you-Sara says that Capt. Thos. C.
West, Democratic candidate for sheriff, who was ambuscaded and shot yesterday, died this morning.

A dispatch from Monroe, La., says that a large body of armed negroes entered that city Sunday night, sccreted their arms, and remained there to-day. The mayor issued a proclamation commanding them to take their arms and return to their homes. They were about to comply when Hamlet, the negro sheriff, collected about three hundred negroes in the city limits, and advised them not to obey the mayor's p oclamation. The negroes took the speriff's advice and concluded to remain. They say they will have another company to join them to-night.

IMPORTANT RESIGNATION.

Hon. D. A. Jenkins Resigns the Office of State Treasurer-His Reasons Therefor-The Treasurer Elect to Fill the Vacancy. To-day Hon, D. A. Jenkins will tender to Governor Brogden his resignation of the office of State Treasurer, the resignation to take effect on the 221 inst. It is underst od that Governor Brogden will appoint the gentleman who is elected to-day to that office, whether Democrat or Rapuillean, to fill the vacancy.

Though Mr. Jenkins is politically hostile to us, yet it is nothing more than simple justice to say that he has made the State a zealous, efficie it and faithful officer. He has always administered his office in the interest of the State and not in that of party. While his political convictions are founded upon what apto him as great principles of truth and justice, he in his dealings with those who differ with him has always been fair and manly; none of the reckless and unreasoning dictates of violent partisanship has warped his mind and led him into reprehensible measures. Mr. Jenkius' reasons for the course he has taken will be found in the following letter of resignation, which, as has been before stated, will be tendered the Governor to-day:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, TREASURY DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, Nov. 6th, 1876. His Excellency, C. H. Brogden, Gor'

ernor of North Carolina, SIR: I tender you my resignation of the office of State Treasurer to take effect on the 224 of the present month. I briefly state the more impor ant reasons which impel this ac-

The unusual delay of the Sheriffs in the settlement of the State taxes the present year, (only one having settled to this date.) indicates financial embarassment among the people and difficulty in collecting the taxes. The burdens and responsibilities of the office will multiply as the Sheriffs come in with the meeting of the General Assembly. There are responsibilities attending the reception of declarand checks in the set. tion of drafts and checks in the set tlements of taxes which a Tressurer going out of office would be unwill ing to assume, as in many cases his endorsements of them are necessary for a complete settlement, and the banks are necessarily depended on for assistance in collecting them. In this view of the matter I am not to this view of the matter I am not to de ermine what course my successor will take in reference to accepting the funds of the Treasury from me after their deposit in bank. If he should require a withdrawal of the deposits, the burden entailed upon the office in counting the funds would be more than the limited cler-ted force of the Treasurer would enwould be more than the limited clerical force of the Treasurer would enabled him promptly to perform in the midst of the daily routine of heavy duties. I suggest further in this connection that in years previous to 1869 the settlements of Sheriffs were completed by the close of the fiscal year, 30th of September, which enabled the Treasurer to have all his broks and accounts ready for inspection by the committee of the General Assembly, as well as for a transfer, with the effects of the office, to his successor on the succeeding transfer, with the effects of the office, to his successor on the succeeding flist of January. I am now ready to make a complete transfer of the office and effects, with accounts, to my successor, but for the reasons herein stated it is probable that as prompt a transfer as desired by both my successor and myself could not be made in the midst of heavy and increasing daily duties during the General Asdaily duties during the General Asiffs if the induction into office of my successor should be delayed beyond the time indicated (22d of Novem-

I do not at the last moment shrink from a responsibility that has been endured for more than eight years past, but the brief time that elapses from the meeting of the General Assembly to the 1st of January will not, in all probability, in view of the financial embarasaments of the people, be sufficient for the Sheriffs to complete their settlements. In view of all the circumstances these settlements should be supervised by one officer. Again, my successor will be afforded an opportunity of consulting with the committees of the General Assembly, especially that on Finance, and of becoming familiar with the needs of the Treasury, so as to aid in devising means of raising revenue. After a service of nearly eight and a half years to the people of the State, in the midst of trying times in the State's history, I lay down my office with the con-sciousness of having always endeavored to discharge fully the duty which the laws imposed on me, and I am pleased to believe that the ver-dict of the people is in accord with this expression.

Very Respectfully,
You Ob't Serv't.,
D. A. JENKINS.

The Sunday Service. All the churches of the city were open Eunday, and large congregations attended the service at all. TAPT'S INSTRUCTIONS.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, cashington, D. C., Nov. 2, 1876.

A Letter to U. S. Marshal Hill.

J. B. Hill., Esq.,
U. S. Marshal, Raleigh, N. C., Dear Sir.—It has been reported to me that Democrata, where they have the control, propose, on frivolous and trumped-up-charges, to arrest at the polls Republican Supervisors and Deputy Marshals. I trust that this Deputy Marshals. I trust that this is a groundless apprehension. In New York the State authorities did recently, at the registration, arres a supervisor, but those engaged in the arrest were immediately arrested under United States process, and held in heavy bail at the instance of the Chief der United States process, and held in heavy bail at the instance of the Chief Supervisor, with a promise of requiring heavier bail if the offence was repeated, and the attempt was abandoned. The Marshals and their deputies have full power under the laws to preserve the peace and protect the ballot-box from violence, and any man who shall obstruct their performance of this duty will be liable to arrest and imprisonment. I do not intend to say that if a marshal or deputy should be guilty of crime his office would shield him from arrest. But no trumped up charge can justify any attempt to arrest or make it safe for the getters up of such a charge to attempt to arrest him. I hope you will have no such maliciousness from the Democrats, and if you should have, go ahead and do your duty learlessly. Let the District Attorney procure process against the offenders in the U.S. Court, without delay. I need not, however, make suggestions to the U.S. District Attorney. He will not, however, make suggestions to the U.S. District Attorney. He will know his duty and will I am sure, do it without fear or favor. Yours respectfully, Alfonso Taft,

Attorney General.
